

400g Norwegian state-owned enterprise

The companies are divided into two categories based on the State's goal as owner. Category 1 comprises the companies where the State's goal is the highest possible return over time ...

The State is an extensive owner of companies in Norway. The State has direct ownership, managed through the ministries, in 69 companies.

Space Norway is a state-owned enterprise under the Norwegian Ministry of Trade, Industry and Fisheries, originally established in 1995 as a subsidiary of the Norwegian Space Centre

The graph shows the development in the value of the State's ownership interests, divided among companies where the State has the goal of the highest possible return over time (Category 1), and ...

This is a list of Norwegian government owned companies. In addition to this the government of Norway owns publicly traded stock domestically through ...

Here you can find the annual state ownership report, white papers on state ownership and other relevant documents.

State ownership in companies can be used as a means of ensuring Norwegian ownership and domicile for these firms. Norway is party to the Government Procurement Agreement (GPA) within the ...

For the sake of analysis, this article distinguishes between two forms of state ownership. First, 100 percent state-owned enterprises (SOEs) were often set up to mitigate market failures and/or to ...

Space Norway AS is a state-owned enterprise of the Ministry of Trade, Industry and Fisheries. The enterprise was established in 1995 as a subsidiary of the Norwegian Space Centre.

This is a list of Norwegian government owned companies. In addition to this the government of Norway owns publicly traded stock domestically through Folketrygdfondet and internationally through The ...

The companies are divided into two categories based on the State's goal as an owner. Category 1 consists of companies where the State's goal as an owner is the highest possible return ...

400g Norwegian state-owned enterprise

Web: <https://prospettivacasa.eu>

