

Authorities believe the 10 arrested suspects served as the local backbone for the network, facilitating logistics and mapping out vulnerabilities in the city's infrastructure.

Indian security agencies have uncovered a Pakistan-based ISI strategy to deploy small, hard-to-detect terror modules targeting railway infrastructure nationwide.

The core concern revolves around the increasing self-reliance of terror groups. Instead of relying on cross-border supply chains for explosives and arms, these nascent modules are now ...

New Delhi, April 4: A plot to carry out blasts in railway stations across the country has been unearthed by the Indian security agencies, which have learnt that the ISI has been setting up several micro ...

The oversight of intelligence operations in India are delegated by multiple agencies, responsible for work within their specific fields that disclose intelligence to their respective ministry.

New Delhi, April 4 A plot to carry out blasts in railway stations across the country has been unearthed by the Indian security agencies, which have learnt that the ISI has been setting up several micro ...

Delhi's ISIS-inspired terror module exposes the rise of micro-jihad in India. From grievance-driven radicalization to online propaganda, New Delhi must act decisively to counter this ...

Security has been tightened across Delhi after intelligence agencies warned of possible IED attacks at key locations, with police intensifying checks amid recent terror module busts linked to ...

India faces new terror threats as micro-factories produce IEDs domestically, using e-commerce for supplies. Intelligence agencies intensify monitoring efforts.

NEW DELHI: White-collar terror modules, new patterns of radicalisation and the push to use AI to counter crime and terror will form the core of discussions at the upcoming DGP/IGP ...

India Micro-Module Intelligence

Web: <https://prospettivacasa.eu>

