

Discover everything you need to know about applying for higher education programmes and studying in Liechtenstein. This page focuses on the university of Liechtenstein in particular.

It supports the recognition of foreign qualifications, as Liechtenstein recruits 50% of the workers from the neighbouring countries (European Commission and Cedefop 2020).

To evaluate the performance of the education system, the government of the Principality of Liechtenstein commissioned the Liechtenstein Institute to ...

It serves as an orientation framework for the further development of the education system in Liechtenstein. The strategy defines the vision, mission and understanding of the education system ...

If you are requesting a Catalog Match or Subject Analysis evaluation only: a syllabus or other type of course descriptions for all academic subjects studied beyond secondary school is needed. Catalog ...

Due to an error in the budget submission for the 2021-2023 call, Liechtenstein was unable to apply for NCP funds. As a result, the EQF-NCP's activities were suspended during this period (European ...

The strategy serves as an orientation framework for the further development of the education system in Liechtenstein. It defines the vision, the mission and the understanding of ...

Liechtenstein does not have its own agency of accreditation. The necessary accreditations and evaluations in connection with the granting or recognition procedures and quality assurance are ...

So far, the Liechtenstein Government has approved the first 37 qualifications. The national coordination point - AIBA - will publish the necessary documents on the website at the end of March 2019.

In 2013, a qualifications framework for higher education, defined in terms of learning outcomes in line with the qualifications framework in the European higher ...

Liechtenstein EDFAQSFP

Web: <https://prospettivacasa.eu>

