

Tower Communications Company Dominican Republic

Altice Europe will sell off its communications tower business in the Dominican Republic to Phoenix Tower International, a portfolio company of Blackstone, for US$170 million.

In 2023, Phoenix Tower International (PTI) significantly expanded its presence across the Caribbean by acquiring approximately 1,500 sites through a multi-country agreement with Liberty ...

Phoenix Tower International ("PTI") owns and operates towers and other wireless infrastructure and related sites throughout Latin America, the Caribbean and the United States.

Find detailed information on Telecommunications companies in Dominican Republic, including financial statements, sales and marketing contacts, top competitors, and firmographic insights.

On July 30, 2018, Phoenix Tower International acquired communications company Teletorres del Caribe from Altice Europe for 170M USD

The company innovates with technology, research and development and enables people to live out their passions by providing original content, high-quality and compelling TV shows, and international, ...

Our experienced staff has worked extensively with communications towers and cell sites facilities in 14 States, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, Dominican Republic. Main disciplines includes: Cellular, ...

América Móvil's infrastructure unit Sitios Latinoamérica has finalized a deal to acquire towers from Claro in the Dominican Republic. The tower company, which was spun off from América...

The main service provider in the Dominican Republic is Tricom. Aster is concentrated in Santo Domingo, but is expanding its service throughout the Dominican Republic.

This latest transaction expands PTI's footprint, in the Dominican Republic, to over 1,600 sites and reinforces PTI's position as the leading tower company across the Caribbean.

Tower Communications Company Dominican Republic

Web: <https://prospettivacasa.eu>

